ORCA planters

by Markus Weigel

ENGLISH

By allying his talent with the beauty of nature, German designer and illustrator Marcus Weigel has created a unique collection of polyresin outdoor planters, exclusively for BULL & STEIN.

Inspired by the feral power of the killer whale, this original bicoloured collection presents a dynamic and asymmetric line which creates an image that is both majestic and imposing. In the orca we find elegance in their ferocity, alongside a marvellous representation of design in its natural state.

Through the timeless combination of black and white, just like killer whales through the ages, the designer succeeds in personifying the paradoxical beauty of these giants of the sea, which are admired as much as they are feared – having a reputation for protecting humans, orcas are equally known as notorious killers.

The Orca collection consists of three different sizes, which are between 40cm and 70cm tall. This collection by Marcus Weigel represents a true symbiosis between art and nature.

FRANÇAIS

En décidant de lier son talent à la beauté de la nature, le designer et illustrateur Allemand Marcus Weigel a créé une collection unique de pots de jardin en poly-résine exclusivement pour BULL & STEIN.

Inspiré par la puissance animale de l'orque, cette collection originale bicolore à la fois majestueuse et imposante présente une ligne dynamique et asymétrique à l'effigie de son modèle. Élégance toute en férocité, la baleine tueuse représente merveilleusement bien l'alliance du design et des matériaux bruts.

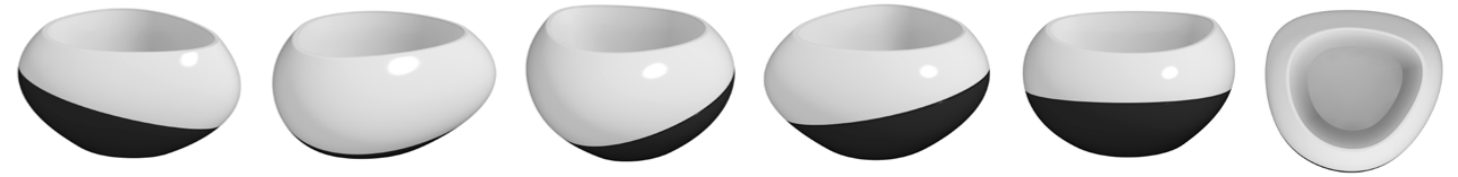

A travers un noir et blanc intemporel, tout comme cet animal qui traverse les âges, Marcus Weigel réussit à transmettre la beauté contradictoire de ces colosses que l'on admire autant que l'on craint. Connus pour protéger les âmes humaines les orques sont également des modèles en tant que tueurs.

Cette collection Orca présentée en trois différentes tailles, allant de 40 à 70 cm de hauteur, offre ainsi une véritable symbiose de l'art et de la nature.
